

Writers' Guidelines—Charis Woman

2023 Issue: Endurance under fire

“For you have need of endurance, so that when you have done the will of God you may receive what is promised.” Hebrews 10:36

Some suggested perspectives include:

1. Where have you seen examples of endurance? How have they inspired you?
2. What are some keys you have seen people use to help them endure?
3. How have you seen rewards for endurance?
4. What kind of testing by fire have you experienced? How did God get you through it?
5. What life lessons have you learned by enduring under fire?
6. Are there biblical figures you identify with when you experience hard times? How?

Articles are due February 28th, 2023.

Charis Woman Writer's Guidelines

PURPOSE

Charis Woman (formerly Women's Spectrum) is an annual magazine produced by Charis Women, the national women's organization of the Charis Fellowship. Its goal is to offer practical biblical encouragement and inspiration while promoting community, cross-generational relationships, global vision and the application of biblical theology to daily life.

AUDIENCE

Charis Woman readers are generally Charis Fellowship women, from new believers to seasoned ministry leaders. They represent a diverse demographic, including age, culture, ethnicity, life stages, location, and church expression.

EDITORIAL NEEDS

We are looking for articles related to the specific theme of each issue that are personal, practical and transformational. The only qualification is life experience and a passion to write about it! Articles should be written in a comfortable, conversational tone, full of real-life anecdotes and appropriate emotion. We want to feel your heart as you share with us part of your spiritual journey or that of another sister in Christ whose life has touched your own. Don't worry about length. Share your story from your heart—we'll take care of the editing. We do reserve the right to edit articles as needed to fit the space available or to comply with the editorial standards of Charis Woman. We are also willing to consider submissions of poetry or short fiction.

SUBMISSION REQUIREMENTS

1. Article length can vary, but ideal length is under 1200 words (shorter is fine).

Quoted material must be properly documented (source, publisher, date, and page numbers) along with permission verification and a photocopy of the original quote.

2. Statistics or factual information which the public would not normally know need to be properly documented along with a photocopy of the information.

3. Include Biblical reference and version when using Scripture in your article.

4. Include two blurbs or pull quotes that will quickly draw the reader into your article.

5. When possible include 1-3 bullet points of practical ideas, practical/quick tips, or personal application, suggestions, Web sites, books, further resources that apply to your article that can be placed in a sidebar. The sidebar provides helpful information that the reader will value.

6. Articles MUST be accompanied with a brief biography in order to be considered for submission. Your biography should only be a few sentences, telling us about your family, ministry involvement and special interests or passions.

7. Include a photo of yourself. You may also include photos related to the article. They MUST be high quality, digital photos taken at the highest resolution. If digital photos are unavailable, please mail us a good quality printed photo that can be scanned, along with a return address.

8. Include your name, mailing address (in order to receive your complimentary issue), email address and the name of your home church. This is NOT for publication, but for the purpose of contacting you regarding your article.

9. All submissions should be sent by email.

10. Submit articles as an attachment (MS Word preferred), NOT in the body of the email to: magazine@chariswomen.com.

THE PROCESS

- All articles will be reviewed by the Editorial Team.
- We are honored that you are willing to share your story with us and acknowledge the hard work and vulnerability behind each story we read. However, you should be aware that while all submissions are appreciated, not all submissions are guaranteed to be published.
- We will notify you by email upon receiving your submission as well as if your article is selected for publication.
- By submitting an article to Charis Woman, you are giving permission to the Editorial Team to make any changes we deem appropriate. However, if more than routine copy editing is necessary, we will notify you and allow you to review the changes before publication.
- By submitting an article to Charis Woman, you are also giving permission for your article to be archived and made available via our website.
- We are unable to provide financial compensation for your article; however, you will receive a complimentary copy of the issue in which your article appears. Thank you. We hope you are as blessed in the writing as we will be in the reading.
